2009 CALIFORNIA CHENIN/VIOGNIER, Chenin Blanc/Viognier, Clarksburg

Wine Enthusiast Magazine, April 2011

"Brilliantly dry and acidic, an Old World-style wine whose price shouldn't mis-lead you. This is a serious food wine, dry and minerally, with lemon and lime flavors. Best Buy." - S.H.

2008 CALIFORNIA MERLOT, Monterey County

The Beverage Tasting Institute, March 2011

"Deep garnet color. Aromas of baked cherries and strawberries, melted chocolate, and faint crispy back bacon with a soft, fruity-yet-dry medium body and a tangy, cedar and rhubarb accented finish. A nice all-purpose sipper or table wine."

2008 CALIFORNIA CABERNET SAUVIGNON, Monterey County

The Beverage Tasting Institute, March 2011

"Aromas of roasted peppers, olive tapenade, and chocolate covered nuts with a supple, fruity-yet-dry medium body and a round, juicy raspberry and blackberry finish. An attractive crowd-pleasing sipper that will cover a lot of bases."

2007 THE SCRAPPER, Cabernet Franc, El Dorado County

Wine Enthusiast Magazine, April 2011

"A 100%-Cabernet Franc from mountainous El Dorado County! This wine's crazy good with tons of varietal character – woody tannins, touch of green pepper, vials of violets – that's also packed with plenty of great plum, cassis and savory notes of leather and mocha, all in a memorable package. With plenty of grip and acid, enjoyed over a meal, it gets better by the minute and has the depth to age 5 - 10 years, too." - V.B.

2007 PETS, Petite Sirah, Clarksburg

Wine Spectator, posted: October 28, 2009

"Appealing for its bright and juicy red and black fruit flavors, with a smooth texture and vivid spice, cola and toast details. Gains some tannic traction on the finish. Drink now through 2016. 8,000 cases made."- M.W.

2006 NAPA CAB, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

Wine & Spirits, December, 2009

"Black, rounded and supple in its alcohol, this drops off into tannin before finishing to sweet black currant flavor. Give it a year for the tannins to mellow, then serve with rump roast."

90 Points

2005 RED DIRT RED, Rhone Style Blend, El dorado County

Wine & Spirits, April 2008

"Rustic and lively, this gold-country wine centers on smooth-textured blackberry richness."

88 Points

2007 G² LATE HARVEST GEWÜRZTRAMINER, Napa Valley

Wine Spectator, February, 2010

"Wonderfully distinctive and aromatic, like a spicy bouquet of roses, with intense lychee, peach and lime notes. A juicy acidity runs through, keeping this lively and refreshing."
